

TOKYO LECTURES IN LANGUAGE EVOLUTION

2-5 April 2015, Komaba 2 Campus, The University of Tokyo

This event brings together researchers from around the world to give an intensive series of lectures introducing modern approaches to language evolution research.

SHORT COURSES

Cedric Boeckx - ICREA/Universitat de Barcelona

Bart de Boer - Vrije Universiteit Brussel

Tecumseh Fitch - The University of Vienna

Jim Hurford - The University of Edinburgh

Simon Kirby - The University of Edinburgh

INVITED TALKS

Koji Fujita - Kyoto University

Takashi Hashimoto - JAIST

Yoshiki Nishimura - The University of Tokyo

Shigeru Miyagawa - MIT

Kazuo Okanoya - The University of Tokyo

Hirokazu Takahashi - The University of Tokyo

Akiko Uchida - Waseda University

REGISTRATION FEES

Faculty: ¥20,000

Students: Free

Further details at: <http://www.langev.tokyo/>

The Tokyo Lectures in Language Evolution are presented by the Japan Evolutionary Linguistics Forum (JELF).